Re: U.S. Cosmetics Corporation, Cases 01-CA-135282 and 01-CA-139115

Dear Ms. Peters-Hamlin and Mr. Cohen:

On May 16, 2016, Counsel for Respondent filed a Motion to Compel Compliance with the Administrative Law Judge's Previous Order to Strike ("Motion") in the above-referenced cases with the National Labor Relations Board Division of Judges. On May 17, 2016, Judge Ira Sandron issued his decision in these cases. This decision did not address Respondent's Motion. On May 19, 2016, Counsel for the General Counsel filed a response to Respondent's Motion. Because these cases had been transferred to the Board upon issuance of the Judge's decision, the General Counsel filed the response with the Board rather than with the Division of Judges.

Because the Judge's decision has issued, Respondent's Motion and the General Counsel's response thereto are moot. Should, however, the General Counsel include statements in subsequent filings with the Board that the Respondent objects to on similar grounds, Respondent may file a motion to strike with the Board at that time.
